

This Football course is devised by one of the leading specialists in World Coaching. Offering direct job introductions into football coaching and the wider sporting industry, students have the opportunity to study a National Qualification in Professional Sports Coaching.

Some of the many benefits of studying with David Campbell Soccer at Trinity School - Carlisle include;

- Direct job opportunities as part of the course – UK and Worldwide
- Open to males and females ages 16-19
- Breaking News... 100% success for jobs – for the last 8 years every student that applied received professional International contracts
- Excellent sports facilities
- Visits to professional Football Clubs and sports event
- Practical sessions and classroom lessons
- Weekly work placement opportunities
- Can combine with 'A' levels and BTEC qualifications (available at selected venues)
- Exit routes to higher education for the more academic students
- Devised by ex-International footballer and UEFA Pro Licence Coach, David Campbell
- Opportunity for fully funded International study visits
- One of the highest retention, attainment and progression figures in the UK
- Additional FA qualifications available

For more information please visit:

<http://www.davidcampbellsoccer.com>

“THE BEST COURSE OF IT’S TYPE IN THE UK”