Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Language Dictionaries

We are very much looking forward to your child being as successful as they can in their language learning in the next academic year. It would be very beneficial that your child attends each language lesson with a dictionary, which would support their learning. These can be purchased in most book shops or online and ideally should have a verb section. Having a good quality dictionary in all lessons is essential to our language learners and these can be bought for as little as £2 in some establishments. Please ignore this information if your child currently brings their own dictionary to class.

Should you have any queries or difficulties in sourcing a dictionary please do not hesitate to contact me.

We wish them well in their future language learning.

Yours faithfully

S McArdle (Mrs)
Curriculum Leader of Modern Languages
